CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT CAROLINA C. BERRY

CAROLINA C. BERRY Chief Master Sergeant Carolina C. Berry is the Senior Enlisted Leader at the 603d Air Operations Center (AOC), Ramstein Air Base, Germany. In this capacity, she advises the commander on readiness, health, morale, welfare and the effective utilization of over 600 Airmen, Soldiers, and Sailors executing command and control of air, information, and space operations throughout the European and African theaters of operation. In addition to multiple Command and Control Battle Management Operations duties, Chief Berry has deployed and supported Operations SOUTHERN WATCH, NOBLE EAGLE, ENDURING FREEDOM, INHERENT RESOLVE, RESOLUTE SUPPORT, and the Combined Defense of the Arabian Gulf.

Chief Berry was born in Annapolis, Maryland. She is the daughter of an Army Noncommissioned Officer and lived in Germany and Texas. She attended Ellison High School in Killeen, Texas where she later enlisted in the Air Force shortly after graduating in 1998. Chief Berry is currently pursuing a master's degree in Homeland Security at Columbia Southern University. Chief Berry has served in numerous leadership positions to include Noncommissioned Officer in Charge of Combat Readiness, Operations Training and the Joint-Interface Control Branch. Her technical proficiency and expertise have earned her instructor and evaluator rating for multiple combat mission ready positions to include Surveillance Technician, Interface Control Technician, Weapons Director Technician and Joint Interface Control Officer.
